

Consent Form for Computer Security Educational Study

Dr. Reiher is participating in an NSF-sponsored research study of the effectiveness of practical exercises in helping students learn about important security concepts. This study will use quiz and exercise results from students in the class to gather data. Participation is strictly voluntary. All materials gathered from students will be anonymized for use in the study, and no personal information will be used. Whether you participate in the study will have no effect on your grade or on your workload in this class. When complete, the results of the study will be made available to you. If you choose to participate, you are free, at any time, to withdraw from the study, simply by informing Dr. Reiher of your desire to do so.

You may direct any questions about this study to Dr. Reiher. If you wish to ask questions about your rights as a research participant or if you wish to voice any problems or concerns you may have about the study to someone other than the researchers, please call the Office for Protection of Research Subjects at (310) 825-7122 or write to Office for Protection of Research Subjects, UCLA, 11000 Kinross Avenue, Suite 102, Box 951694, Los Angeles, CA 90095-1694.

If you are willing to participate in this study, please sign this form and return it to Dr. Reiher.

I agree to participate in this study of the effectiveness of computer security teaching methodology.
